A STARVING FAMILY

Discovered in an Isolated Portion of Fayette County.

EIGHT PERSONS LIKELY TO DIR.

A Woman With a Child in Her Arms Struck by the Locomotive.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CONNELLSVILLE, December 24 .- A very distressing sight was witnessed here this evening. A family of eight persons, consisting of mother and father and six children, were discovered in a starving condition near Moyer, and were brought here to be sent to the County Home. All of the family were in a dying condition. The gaunt faces of the elder people and the hollow eyes and hungry looks of the little ones elicited much sympathy from spectators, but little money or assistance.

The father and mother had been taken ill from fever, and as they lived in an iso-lated place the children could procure no aid. Their condition was accidentally discovered by a farmer, who chanced to visit the house. The family have reached such. a stage that it is thought none oau recover.

A PUGILISTIC PREACHER.

He is Charged Before Cinsals With Having Assaulted an Elder.

LANCASTER, December 24 .- A meeting of Lancaster Classis of the Reformed Church was held to take action on a charge brought by the consistory of the Maytown church against Rev. J. F. Meckley, the pastor. The offense charged consists of an alleged assault made by Rev. Meckley, who is over Paris Epler, an elder of his church.

It appeared from the testimony that for some time past a majority of the congregation had been dissatisfied with Rev. Mecktion had been dissatished with Rev. Meck-ley and were in favor of requesting his resignation. Paris Epler, on Sunday, No-vember 10, asked Mr. Meckley to call a meeting of the consistory, telling him that the business to be transacted was personal; that perhaps the members of the congrega-tion did not want him for another year, and that if he did not call a meeting he was not doing his duty was minister much less as a man.

At this point, according to Mr. Epler's story, Rev. Mr. Meckley caught Epler by the neck and, holding him at arm's length with one hand, said: "If it wasn't Sunday and in the church I would knock you down; if we were outside I would knock you down and any angles." Rev. Mr. Meckley, in giving his version of the affair, admitted making the remarks, but said he only laid his hand on Epler's Classis by a vote of 14 to 1 decided that the assault had not been made out, but fixed December 30 for the holding of a special meeting to act on the congregation's request for Mr. Meckley's resignation.

A QUESTION OF JURISDICTION. The Arrest of a Government Officer for Taking Sand From the River. SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.

WELLSBURG, W. VA., December 24.— Captain C. H. Conn, of New Cumberland, of the steamer Fay S., of Wheeling, was arrested by Sheriff Curtis, of this county, and placed in jail here to-day on a warrant in the instance of Alexander Coleman will probably be rushed upon the market. of Steubenville, charging Captain Conn with unlawful trespass in taking and from the Ohio river for Waceling parties. The captain claims he was guilty of no offense and was working as an officer of the United

He refuses to give bail or return on his own recognizance. It is likely a heavy damage suit will be the result, as Mr. Conn claims he was working far enough from the shore to be beyond any private jurisdiction.

SENTENCED TO RIVERSIDE.

The Convicted Incondingles Receive Terms of Couniderable Length.

[SPECIAL TRANSPAR TO THE DISPATCE] GREENSHURG, December 24 - Henry Hetzel and James Francis of Connellsville, recently convicted with Frank Baer of burning the Rumbaugh mill here, were this afternoon sentenced to the Riverside penitentiary for a period of six years and six months each. The prisoners were very much affected, being greatly disappointed at the Court overraling the motion to send them to the reformatory at Huntington.

The negro Fox, upon whose testimony the mill-burners were convicted, will be brought here from the Uniontown jail and sentenced, it is said, in a few days.

NO CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

The Very Strange Order of a Silk Mill Su-

ALLENTOWN, December 24 .- Every one of the 1,000 persons employed in the Ade-laide Silk Mills, at Allentown, had contributed toward purchasing Christmas presents for the foremen and forewomen. Many of the articles had already been purchased when the Superintendent, Louis Soleling, issued orders that any one detected in giving or receiving presents would be summarily dismissed.

This unlooked-for order created great consternation and dissatisfaction, but the dealers from whom the goods had been pur-chased willingly took them back to oblige the hands.

HE GETS NO DAMAGES.

One Case Against the Pennsylvania Company Thrown Out of Court.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. HUNTINGDON, December 24.—The case of Elliott Bobley against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for $50,000 damages, which has been on trial here during the past two weeks, came to a sudden termination to-day, by Judge Furst directing the jury to find for the defendant company. This was eventually withdrawn, and a non-suit granted the plaintiff. Mr. Robley, who lost his house, barn, stock, and the greater por-tion of his farm land by the disserrous June flood, alleged that the company's bridge near his property was the cause of his loss.

DEATH ON THE TRACK.

A Woman With a Child in Her Arms Struck by a Train.

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CONNELLSVILLE, December 24.-A weman who carried in her arms a small FULL VALUEFOR THE MONEY haby was struck by a train a short distance below this place this morning. The woman was fatally injured and the child killed.

The bodies lay on the track for some time before discovered. The woman's home is in Dawson, but her name could not be learned.

A Serious Freight Wreck.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DEPATCE. GREENSRUEG, December 24.—By a wreck on the Southwest Baliroad this morn-ing 17 cars filled with coke were entirely demolished. The wreck occurred between Youngwood and Pointerville and was caused by the train breaking and then run-ning together again. The coke was owned by Schoonmaker. The loss is heavy to the road company.

As Increase of Wages. SCHANTON, December 24.—Notice was given to-day to the steel mill and blast employes of the Lackswanns Iron and Coal Company that on January 1 an increase of wages of from 5 to 10 per cent will go into effect. This affects over 3,000 men, and is justified by the increased price of steel ralls.

> A PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT. eat Growth of Jefferson Academy in th

CANONSBURG, December 24.—The mos pleasant social event of the season occurred in the spacious halls of Jefferson Academy. The Rev. Dr. Des Islets was called to the Presidency of this school last August, when it had been badly run down. Since his coming, Jefferson Academy has evidently entered upon a new era of success and use fulness. The course of study has been renovated, new life and order have been infused iuto the school, a spirit of study and enthusiasm has taken hold of the students and the attendance has been largely increased. The indications are that this famous school The indications are that this famous school will soon eclipse even its brightest days. This state of affairs, together with other things, has greatly pleased the people of this classic town; and last evening, irrespective of sect, sex or "previous condition of servitude," they assembled at the college buildings and took possession. The Canonsburg Cornet Band discoursed acceptable music and the fair sex graced the occasion with their presence and vied with the sterner sex in making the occasion a pleasant one.

Several witty speeches were made, after which a sumptuous lunch was served by the ladies, to which the large number present did ample justice. One of the pleasantest features of the occasion was the presentation to Dr. Des Islets of a purse of $200 in each and as much more to his family in ar-cash and as much more to his family in ar-ticles too numerous to mention. The stu-dents had, a lew days before, presented him with an elegant easy chair. Altogether the occasion was a very enjoyable one and re-flected credit upon the town, the academy and the Rev. Dr. Des Islets.

ANOTHER CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

The One at Johnstown Will be Rebuilt by His Generosity

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. JOHNSTOWN, December 24 .- Mr. Andrew Carnegie to-day authorized the officials of the Cambria Iron Company to draw on him for funds to rebuild the Johnstown Public Library building, which was destroyed by the floed. The Library has an endowment fund of $40,000, and upon completion of their building will be in good

The graves of all the unknown dead, about 800, are to be marked with headstones in-scribed with numbers corresponding with the morgue records, which contain a full de-scription of each body. J. L. Smith left for Philadelphia to purchase marble for this purpose to-day.

A RAILROAD BOND FIGHT.

The Citizens of a Minnesota Town Are in an Excited Condition.

ROCHESTER, MINN., December 24 .-Railroad bonds of the city of Rochester to the amount of $40,000 were to-day signed by Mayor Porter and Recorder Yetter. Much feeling has existed in this city since the election two months since, which has divided the voters into two factions, and pamphlets by the thousand were circulated for and against the measure. The Council, at its last meeting, passed a resolution that the bonus be issued, providing they contained certain restrictive clauses that were also included in the proposition that was

A contest concerning their validity is in-evitable, as leading citizens freely express their belief that the bonds are fraudulent and will be null and void in the hands of purchasers. With a single exception the City Connell is opposed to their issue in their present form.

"I have been suffering from an acute attack of rheumatism, induced by a severe sprain of a once dislocated ankle joint, which caused great swelling and intense pain. But one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla restored circulation, cleansed the blood and relieved the pain so that I am nearly well again. I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as standing at the head of remedies for puritying the blood and giving a healthy tone to the system."—L. T. HUNT, Springfield, Mo.
